ONE Cares for its Green Spaces in Richmond, VA

ONE thing you cannot miss noticing in Richmond is the James River cutting through and cradling the city. Another is how green the city is with more than 170 parks, open spaces, athletic fields, playgrounds and tot lots.

ONE Richmond is making a commitment to volunteer alongside our neighbors to maintain our outdoor spaces and help improve our communities & environment. We are doing this by coordinating at least two group volunteering opportunities each month through 'HandsOn Greater Richmond'*. As of now, planned activities have included Habitat for Humanity, James River Cleanup, Gardening and Painting Cabins.

Pictured are 2 recent activities:

1. ONE NA's Trail Blazing with Mulch Crew who volunteered with the James River Park System to improve the paths along the Historic Richmond Slave Trail at Ancarrow's Landing.

2. Gardening at the Great Shiplock Park with Capital Trees. Capital Trees works to make Richmond a greener, more livable city by creating public landscapes that foster community building, environmental stability, economic investment and healthier lifestyles.

We have found that many of our volunteers look forward to being outdoors, connecting with their friends and coworkers all the while making a positive impact on our community. All departments are pitching in to help. This includes Sales, Execution Marketing, Marine & Planning, Customer Service, Finance, BPIT S&I, Legal, Internal Audit and our own Board of Directors.

We encourage all ONE employees at every office to find a way to get involved and improve our world through volunteering.

As ONE, We Care!
